Important notice for beneficiary nominations

- For Perpetual Select Pension Plan you are only able to make a reversionary beneficiary, binding or non-binding nomination.
- For the purpose of paying a death benefit, a dependant is:
 - a person who is financially dependent upon you at the date of death or
 - a child, adopted child, step-child, ex-nuptial child or
 - a spouse (including a de facto spouse) or
 - a person with whom you have a close personal relationship and share a residence with and one or each of you provides the other with financial support, domestic support and personal care or
 - a person with whom you have a close personal relationship, but the other requirements detailed above aren't satisfied because either or both of you suffer from a physical, intellectual or psychiatric disability.

Binding nomination rules

- In order to be effective, a binding nomination must be signed by two witnesses who are at least 18 years old and who are not named in this nomination form. Also, in order to have effect, this form must be delivered to the Trustee.
- Only your dependants or legal personal representative are eligible to receive your death benefit. Eligibility of a nominated person is determined at the date of your death.
- A binding nomination is effective for three years after the day it was first signed, or last confirmed or amended by the member. If you wish to confirm your nomination for another three years, you may do so by providing a signed notice to that effect to the Trustee.
- Your binding nomination will also cease to have effect if you subsequently marry, remarry or divorce.
- If a dependant nominated to receive a benefit predeceases the member or if a person nominated is not a dependant or legal personal representative at the time of death, that person's benefit will be distributed equally amongst the surviving nominated dependants or current legal personal representative. If there are no surviving nominated dependants or nominated legal personal representative it will be paid in accordance with the Trustee's discretion.
- You must provide all details requested in this form. If you do not, the Trustee may need to contact you to obtain further information. In the absence of certain information, the rules governing binding nominations adopted by the Trustee provide for the following:
 - If you fail to specify any proportion, the benefit will be distributed equally amongst those persons nominated who are eligible to receive a benefit. If you do nominate percentages in respect of all nominated persons but the sum of the percentages is other than 100%, the percentages will be adjusted proportionately.
 - If you specify a proportion in respect of some but not all of the nominated persons the residual amount will be distributed equally amongst those nominated persons in respect of whom no proportion is specified. In the event there is no residual amount, no benefit will be paid to those persons in respect of whom no proportion is specified.
